

Curriculum Map –Public Health Certificate in Emergency Management & Infection Control

Courses	EOH Required Core Courses
	PHC 5102	PHC 6251	BSC 5856	HSC 5205	HSC 6528	MCB 5273
Student Learning Outcomes
Develop and implement culturally appropriate approaches for assessing, preventing and controlling environmental hazards/disasters that pose risks to human health and safety in the community setting.	X
Communicate audience-appropriate public health content, both in writing and through oral presentation, including risk communication when dealing with emergencies from biological, chemical and/or physical agents that affect human health in diverse populations.			X	X	X	X
Develop, implement and evaluate infection programs for, preventing and controlling environmental hazards/disasters that pose risks to human health.			X		X
Retrieve and analyze public health surveillance data used in the United States and globally.		X	X	X		X
Course key: 1. HSC 5205: Public Health Preparedness 2. PHC 6251: Disease Surveillance and Monitoring 3. HSC 6528 : Prevention of Infectious Diseases	4. MCB 5273: Epidemiology of Infectious Diseases 5. PHC 5102: Principles of Public Health 6. BSC 5856: Bioterrorism

Find out more about the Graduate Certificate in Emergency Management & Infection Control at UWF:
<http://uwf.edu/mpb>