Honorary Doctorate Degree

P.J. O’ROURKE

Doctor of Humane Letters, Honoris Causa

With more than a million words of trenchant journalism under his byline and more citations in The Penguin Dictionary of Humorous Quotations than any other living writer, P.J. O’Rourke has established himself as America’s premier political satirist. Both Time and The Wall Street Journal have called him “the funniest writer in America.” He frequently appears on television and is a regular panelist on National Public Radio’s Wait, Wait, Don’t Tell Me. Whether dealing with the inner workings of Washington bureaucracy, the shifting political and economic sands of the new world order or his own living room, P.J. proves himself to be a savvy guide to world, national and even domestic affairs.

Patrick Jake O’Rourke was born in Toledo, Ohio, son of a car salesman and dance instructor. He began life as a Republican, but in the late 1960’s he changed his politics to conform to the rest of the nation’s youth. He says, “At least I was never a liberal. I went from Republican to Communist and right back to Republican.” P.J. attended Miami University in Oxford, Ohio and graduate school at Johns Hopkins where he was a Woodrow Wilson Fellow. After receiving an M.A. in English, he worked at small newspapers in Baltimore and New York. In the early 1970’s, P.J. joined The National Lampoon where he became the editor-in-chief and created, with Doug Kenney, the now classic 1964 High School Yearbook Parody. In the 1980’s, he decided the real world was funnier than anything National Lampoon’s writers could invent, becoming a roving reporter covering crises and conflicts around the world.

P. J. O’Rourke is the best-selling author of 17 books, including Holidays in Heck, Don’t Vote—It Just Encourages the Bastards, Parliament of Whores, Give War a Chance, Eat the Rich, The CEO of the Sofa, Peace Kills, On the Wealth of Nations, Driving Like Crazy, Holidays in Hell and Republican Party Reptile. He has written for such diverse publications as Automobile, The Weekly Standard, House and Garden, Garden and Gun, Foreign Policy, The New York Times Book Review, Forbes FYI, Rolling Stone, World Affairs and The Atlantic Monthly. He’s known as a hard-bitten, cigar-smoking conservative (making him unique among contemporary humorists). But, in fact, he bashes all political persuasions. As he puts it, “Giving money and power to government is like giving whiskey and car keys to teenage boys.”

No stranger to the University of West Florida, P.J. first visited the campus to deliver the 2009 Jerry Maygarden Distinguished Public Service Lecture. He returned to UWF in 2010 to serve as our inaugural Writer-in-Residence, delivering lectures in three different disciplines, offering writing feedback to promising students, and living a professorial life for a week. The seriousness of his commitment and his energetic fulfillment of the promise of the “in residence” concept impressed his colleagues, encouraged his students, and made his contributions fitting for the honorary designation of Doctor of Humane Letters.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The academic costume worn today at the University of West Florida originated in the universities of the Middle Ages when a warm gown and hood were useful for scholar and cleric in unheated buildings. The distinctive gown also served to set the student apart from his fellow citizens of the community. Until the Civil War, students at most American universities wore caps and gowns daily while in residence. These varied in design until they were standardized in 1894. At that time it was decided that all robes would be black; bachelors' gowns of silk with long closed sleeves; doctors' gowns of silk with longer sleeves and faced with black velvet from hem to neck and back. The doctors' gowns also carried three velvet bands around each sleeve above the elbow. Hoods, made of the same materials as the gowns, were varied in length with the degree. The lining of the hood indicated the academic discipline in which the degree was earned. In the recent years several universities have decided to return to a distinctive gown design, particularly in the color of the garment. However, there has been no change in the standard colors that represent the disciplines. At the University of West Florida each bachelor's degree candidate or graduate wears a blue and green tassel on the cap (mortar board). The tassels of master's and specialist's degree candidates and graduates represent the college awarding the degree: white, arts and sciences; light brown, business; and light blue, professional studies. Doctoral degree recipients wear a gold tassel. In addition, baccalaureate graduates who have earned a 3.5 accumulative grade point average or better are entitled to wear gold honor cords on their gowns.

Academic Hood Colors

The color lining the hood indicates the following:

- Apricot, Nursing
- Brown, Architecture and Fine Arts
- Citron yellow, Social Work
- Crimson, Journalism/Communications
- Dark blue, Philosophy
- Green, Medicine
- Lemon yellow, Library Science
- Light blue, Education
- Light brown, Business
- Orange, Engineering
- Peacock Blue, Public Administration
- Pink, Music
- Purple, Law
- Sage green, Physical Education
- Salmon pink, Public Health
- Scarlet, Theology
- White, Arts and Letters
- Yellow, Science

UNIVERSITY of WEST FLORIDA

ALMA MATER

*Where learning's light sends forth its beam
Through darkness of our youth,
There you, West Florida, home of dreams
Prepare the way of truth.
You guide us toward tomorrow's shore
With knowledge of our past;
Your power in us rests secure,
And evermore will last.
Your stately mansions were our home
Where minds and hearts are free
And though we may far from you roam,
We'll always honor thee.*
